

Combined unions all staff meeting

New York Update

All staff meeting to discuss what's happening now

All Welcome

Thursday 18th May

1pm - 2pm
W011

There will also be an update on catering outcomes and other current issues

Office of College and University Evaluation

Higher Ed in NY | Accreditation | Program Registration | Higher Ed Authorization | Policy & Guidance | Student/Public Resources

NYSSED / Higher Ed / OCUE / Glasgow Caledonian University

Glasgow Caledonian University - Proposal to Become a New York State Degree-Granting Institution

April 10, 2017

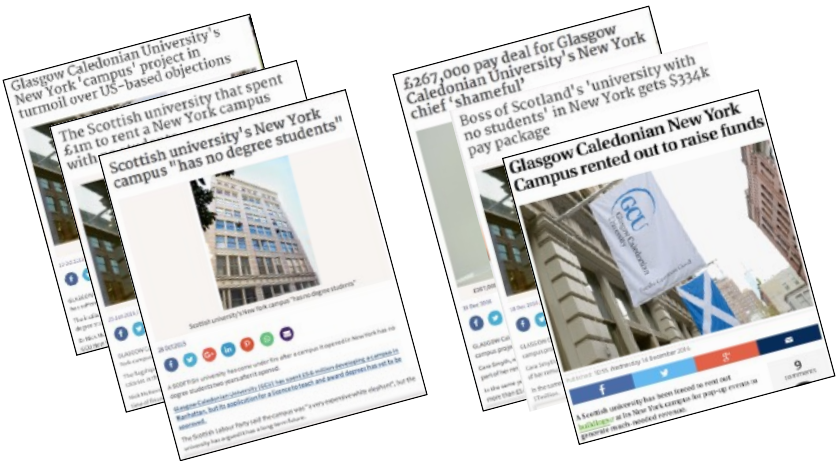

To: Chief Executive Officers of Colleges and Universities in the New York City Region
From: John L. D'Agati, Deputy Commissioner
Subject: Public Hearing: Glasgow Caledonian University - Proposal to Establish a New York State Degree-Granting Institution: Glasgow Caledonian New York College (Rescheduled from March 30, 2017)

On May 22, 2017, the Board of Regents will hold a public hearing on the application from Glasgow Caledonian University (Glasgow, Scotland) to establish a degree-granting institution, Glasgow Caledonian New York College, at 64 Wooster Street, New York City. The Institution proposes to offer the following four programs initially within the academic discipline of Business:

- Master of Science (MS) in Luxury Brand Management;
- Master of Science (MS) in International Fashion Marketing;
- Master of Science (MS) in Risk Management;
- Master of Science (MS) in Social Business and Microfinance;

The Institution has also indicated its intention to apply to register the following additional program within the first five years of operation in New York State:

- Master of Arts (MA) in Television Fiction Writing

For more information: <http://caledonianunion.com>